Petitioner

Vs.

ROBERTO PALOU BOSCH, ET ALS,
Respondents

MOTION REQUESTING RECONSIDERATION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Comes now petitioner pro se and respectfully alleges and prays:

1. The prevalent doctrine is against quota litis and in favor of a loadestar record of contemporaneous hours, or the claim will be dismissed. Palou has neither. He fabricated a record of hours equivalent to 13 years of daily trial, compared it to quota litis and said that it was the same.

2. The petitioner's property was appraised including the goodwill. The judge gave him 1.7 millions of the 7 millions he was asking for and kicked the petitioner off his property and locked him out. That is the same as a lock in.
3. The Civil Rights Act, 42 USC section 1983 is applicable. The violation of civil rights.

4. Section 1985 is also applicable to the conspiracy to deprive petitioner from his property.

5. This is an awful and shameful precedent against the doctrine and against the ethical code.

WHEREFORE, petitioner requests a reconsideration to save his property against such donation and save the ethical code.
